Day 1: Three Techniques for Winning Money

So you want to use the Law of Attraction to win some money, eh? Cool! ☺

Don't worry - it's completely natural to wonder if you can use the various Law of Attraction, mind power, and/or energy healing techniques to win the lottery, or to win money gambling, or win a raffle, etc. After all, if you can heal a deadly disease or overcome a life-long debilitating disease, it shouldn't be that hard to predict some winning numbers or have a lucky night at the casino, right?

I had exactly this same thought! In fact, one of the things I did after I first learned how to do energy healing was to run an experiment where I bought a Super Lotto ticket for ten consecutive draws, and then did a manifestation to win. I did it in late 2003, and I will reveal the results of my little experiment in last article in this series. ☺

In the coming days, we'll get deep into the nitty-gritty of what's really going on behind the scenes when you use the Law of Attraction to win money from a lottery, gambling, or other game of luck or chance. We'll cover the most common mistakes and pitfalls, as well as the incomplete or incorrect mental models or paradigms that are block your ability to win money.

Today, we're going to explore the three different energy healing and manifesting techniques you could use to win money. If you are an energy healing practitioner, you should already be quite familiar with all three; if not, I'll provide pointers to resources you can use to either learn them or find a product or person to do it for you.

So, what are the three tools or techniques you can use to win money via the Law of Attraction? They are:

- 1) Muscle Testing
- 2) Future Reading
- 3) Manifesting Technique

We'll discuss all three, and then I'll make a recommendation for which one I think is going to be the most effective.

Technique #1: Muscle Testing

First, you can use muscle testing to predict winning lottery numbers (or the winning roulette number, or the winner of a sports competition, etc.) I expect that if you are reading this article, you already know how to do muscle testing, but if not, check out my video Secrets of Muscle Testing, which is a free download within the VIP Club.

Try it and you'll find that your subconscious mind will nearly always give you answers...but the answers you'll get from muscle testing are generally not any better than blind guessing. (And if you are wondering how to use muscle testing to pick the numbers, you simply use one muscle test divide the solution space in two, until you've narrowed it down to one number. For example, if you are picking lottery numbers that range from 1 to 99, start by testing "The first winning lottery number is between 49 and 99"; if it's yes, follow up with "The first winning lottery number is between 49 and 74", etc. until you have enough numbers.)

The reason you won't win money via muscle testing is that, contrary to what many holistic practitioners and Law of Attraction coaches teach, muscle testing is not a direct hotline to truth. Instead, muscle testing can ONLY read your subconscious belief systems. Otherwise, you could use muscle testing to pick stocks, or lottery numbers, or Super Bowl winners, etc. Hence, muscle testing is a fundamentally flawed technique for predicting the future or obtaining any external, verifiable truth, so I wouldn't bother with it.

But don't take my word for it – go try it yourself and see what happens!

Technique #2: Future Reading

A second way to pick winning lottery numbers (or stocks, sports teams, etc.) is to access a conscious theta brainwave and then use your crown chakra to read the future. (If you don't already know how to do this, you can visit your local psychic and have them do it for you, or you can get Vianna Stibal's book Theta Healing and learn her future reading process. But if you do this, get yourself to a training class ASAP – you don't want to learn future reading entirely from a book.)

Unlike muscle testing, it actually is possible to read the future and pick winning numbers. However, there's several factors working against you that make it an extremely difficult challenge, even under ideal conditions.

First, reading letters and numbers is one of the most difficult things to do with an intuitive reading (or remote viewing or any version of this technique.) Even the best psychics often have trouble with letters and numbers – it's much easier to read feelings, shapes, colors, etc.

Second, it's difficult to get accurate intuition about yourself, or anything that you are emotionally invested in or attached to. This is why it's difficult to do effective digging on yourself, and why I nearly always pay other healing professionals to work on me instead of doing it myself.

Third, because the future is not certain until we witness it and experience it, even the world's best psychic reader can only read probabilities or potentialities. Hence even if the answer comes through loud and clear, what you'll get are the numbers that were the most likely to win at the time you did the reading, and those numbers are likely to change. This makes the lottery especially difficult to win via intuitively reading the winning numbers, because there are many, many people involved, and all of them are putting many powerful thoughts and feelings into play which disrupts and changes the probabilities.

Lastly, and perhaps most importantly, don't forget that as soon as you do a future reading, you've changed the future, and likely invalidated your reading. This is because when you do a future reading (on anything, not just the lottery!), you'll be shown the most likely or most probably outcome at the moment you do the reading. However, as soon as you've done your future reading, you have new information, which immediately changes those probabilities. Oops!

Overall, if you're a talented and experienced intuitive reader, you may be able to do a reading to get the winning numbers. But it's a really difficult challenge, and even if you get it right, the simple act of doing your future reading and getting the winning numbers may change them.

Technique #3: Manifesting

The last (and best!) option is to use a manifestation technique from a conscious theta brainwave to manifest winning. (If you don't know how to do this already, you can get my Formula for Miracles encoded guided manifestation meditation, which is a bonus program included with Unleash Your Inner Millionaire. Alternatively, if you have a manifesting process you like and just need to do it from a theta wave, do it while listening to the Deep Theta Meditation with headphones, which is a free download within the VIP Club.)

Using a manifesting technique is the most straight-forward and best way to win money because you don't need to guess or try to figure out the winning numbers. Instead, you simply need to tell the Universe that you are winning the money! (And, of course, do it from a theta brainwave.)

The rest of the material in this special event assumes that you'll be using a manifesting technique to help you win.

Just in case you aren't interested in using these technique to win money, realize that over 90% of the material in this special event is generally applicable to whatever you want to manifest in your life. In other words, what you will learn isn't just about gambling and lotteries – instead, it's about effective manifesting, no matter what your desires are. So if you have no interest in winning the lottery or gambling, simply substitute whatever your dream or desire is, and the same principles and techniques apply!
